The COVID-19 pandemic is expected to have a significant, long-term impact on the mental health of many children and adolescents in the Commonwealth.

In this second webinar conversation in our Well Being in the Time of COVID series, Melissa Threadgill will share findings and recommendations from the MA Childhood Trauma Task Force report, Protecting our Children's Well-Being During Covid-19: Recommendations for Supporting Children and Families Who Have Experienced Trauma and Stress During the Pandemic. Please join us!

Melissa Threadgill is Director of Juvenile Justice Initiatives at the MA Office of the Child Advocate, where she provides lead staff support to the statewide Childhood Trauma Task Force.
